

NEW! AIM Specialized Reading Knowledge: English Learners

Developed by the AIM Institute in collaboration with Dr. Elsa Cárdenas-Hagan

The Maryland State Department of Education is excited to offer professional learning to all public school Maryland educators at no cost.*

The AIM Institute's Specialized Reading Knowledge: English Learners modules will guide educators in developing the specialized knowledge required to accelerate language and literacy proficiency for English Learners in any program model with immediate instructional applications. Each module in the Specialized Reading Knowledge Bundle: English Learners includes asynchronous online course instruction with exclusive content recorded by Dr. Cárdenas-Hagan, and a wealth of assessment resources, implementation tools, and printables to support immediate use in the classroom.

The Modules of this Course Includes:

- Introduction to English Learners: Language & Literacy Development- This is the requisite module within the Specialized Reading Knowledge Bundle: English Learners (EL) series. This module develops foundational knowledge for teachers working with ELs as they progress through language acquisition.
- Word Recognition Among English Learners- This module explores the processes, knowledge, and skills that comprise the lower word strands of Scarborough's Reading Rope, with specific considerations for the adjustments that educators should make so that ELs thrive.
- Language Comprehension Among English Learners- This module focuses on the processes, knowledge, and skills that comprise the upper language comprehension strands of Scarborough's Reading Rope with specific considerations for the instructional adjustments for ELs to develop comprehension at the word, sentence, and text levels. Includes lesson exemplars and routines to support next-day instructional decisions.
- Each module is paired with a 1-hour synchronous community of practice session (VCoP) with an expert AIM facilitator.
